Members of the Idaho Water Resource Board will hold an emergency meeting by telephone on Wednesday, February 9, 2005, beginning at 9 a.m.

The purpose of the meeting is to clarify language in a resolution approved by the Board earlier today that relates to proposed minimum stream flows contained in the Snake River water rights agreement designed to settle the Nez Perce Tribe's water right claims in the Snake River Basin.

The meeting will be initiated at IDWR Headquarters in the Idaho Water Center, 322 E. Front Street in Boise.

Anyone interested in listening to the Water Board's conference call can do so by calling 334-832-4208, participation code 815833. The cost for the call will be up to the individual.
